Weekly Prayer Topics:

World ~ Syria. The Turkish invasion in north east Syria to defeat the Kurdish militias has led to the deaths of hundreds of civilians and to hundreds of thousands being displaced. Pray for the grieving, the injured, the displaced and those living in fear as well as those assisting the injured and displaced. Pray for the fighting to stop and for long-term peace and security to be restored throughout this troubled country.

Church ~ Public Affairs. Pray for medical professionals and other service providers directly affected by the change in legislation on abortion. Pray for those seeking to exercise their right to conscientious objection.

Congregation ~ Give thanks for the Badminton groups and Bowling club who meet weekly in our church hall providing opportunities for people to meet together for friendly, or not so friendly rivalry over a game of badminton or bowls. Pray for those who lead the clubs and organise internal and external competitions and for members that they would continue to enjoy good health and some friendly competition.

Community ~ Pray for pupils and teachers as they enjoy the half term break this week and pray for students in year 14 as they complete UCCAS forms to apply for university places next year.
