

FIRST OMAGH PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH
Remembrance Sunday 14th November 2021

REMEMBRANCE

SUNDAY

14th

God our hope in Life and Death

There will be a short Act of Remembrance at the start of the service. Thanks to John for the music, Hannah for the reading and David, Nev, and Peter for their technical assistance.

Scripture passage: Psalm 16

Hymns : 408 In Christ Alone and 78 All my hope on God is founded.

You are warmly invited to join us for worship in First Omagh Church. The usual Covid mitigations will be in place i.e. track and trace; 1m social distancing; hand sanitisers and one way system. From Sunday 31st Oct onwards face coverings MUST continue to be worn on entering and leaving church and when singing. However, if individuals wish to do so, face coverings may be removed during the service, except when singing.

Seats will continue to be allocated in church on a first come first served basis and an overflow will be available in the Hall should it be needed.

Please do not come out to church if you, or anyone in your household are experiencing COVID 19 symptoms or been asked to self-isolate.

The service will also be livestreamed on www.firstomagh.com and on YouTube <https://youtu.be/ai35Wy2DiFc> for those joining in from home and will also be available to listen to on our sermon line 028 2502 2512 later on Sunday evening.

JIGSAW and Blast will meet as usual during church in the Rowan Hall and Youth Room respectively.

Parents with Toddlers are welcome to come to the service either in church or in the overflow where a crèche space will be made available. Please bring your own toys, books etc. Please do not attend if you or anyone in your household have COVID symptoms or been told to self-isolate.
